OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject: Clarification regarding the eligibility criteria for individual micro enterprises under the PMFME scheme

The PMFME Scheme envisages support to Individual Enterprises through credit linked capital grant @35% of the eligible capital expenditure with a maximum ceiling of Rs.10.00 lakh per unit. Beneficiary contribution should be minimum of 10% of the capital expenditure with balance being loan from the Bank.

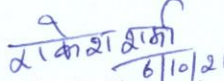

2. For support under the Scheme, States/UTs are seeking clarifications on the eligibility of enterprises already having all or any of the registration/ license such as FSSAI/ Udyog/ Udyam / GST and new enterprises engaged in processing of non ODOP.

3. It is clarified that the following micro food processing enterprises are eligible for credit linked grant under the PMFME Scheme:-

- i. Existing enterprises that may or may not have FSSAI/ Udyog / Udyam / GST license/registration;
- ii. New enterprises involved in processing of ODOP having/ not having any or all of the said registrations/ license.

4. States/ UTs are requested to bring the said clarification to the notice of all the stakeholders viz. DRP, DLC, DNO, SLBC, Lending Branches, potential beneficiaries etc., so that the scheme benefits are extended to all the eligible enterprises.

5. This has the approval of the competent authority.
